

Free Admission Concert!

Jay Fishman, artistic director

Winter Concert Series II featuring Andrew Staupe, piano

Friday, January 6, 2012, 7 pm

Founders Hall, Metropolitan State University
700 East 7th Street, St. Paul

Saturday, January 7, 2012, 2 pm

Basilica of Saint Mary

88 17th Street North, Minneapolis

Sponsored by the Janice Gardner Family Foundation

Andrew Staupe, piano

American pianist Andrew Staupe is an internationally lauded soloist hailed for his compelling virtuosity and poetic lyricism by audiences and critics alike.

Staupe has earned prizes in a number of competitions and has performed across the United States and extensively in Europe, appearing in Russia, Holland, Latvia, Romania, France, Germany, and Bulgaria.

Program:

Gusts of Snow.....Mona Lyn Reese

Piano Concerto No. 27 in B Flat, K. 595.....W. A. Mozart
-Andrew Staupe, piano

Pictures at an Exhibition.....M. Mussorgsky

This activity is made possible in part by a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, through an appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature and a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

No reservations required. First come, first seated.

Children always welcome!

