The Minnesota Sinfonia is a professional orchestra serving the musical and educational needs of the citizens of Minnesota, especially families with young children, inner-city youth, seniors and those with limited financial means. Playing free admission concerts for over 25,000 people each year, the Sinfonia welcomes children to every performance, and dedicates over half of services to inner-city youth and their education. Founded in 1989 by Artistic Director Jay Fishman, the Sinfonia is a community-supported 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

WHY SUPPORT THE MINNESOTA SINFONIA?

A professional orchestra playing free admission concerts for over 25,000 people each year, the MN Sinfonia is a community-supported 501(c)3 non-profit organization. All activities are made possible thanks to donations made by people just like you and, in part, by support from the following...

TOGETHER WE MAKE BEAUTIFUL MUSIC. THANK YOU!

FEATURED ARTIST

William Feng

William Feng is an 11 year old pianist, violist, and classical composer. He has been studying piano with Susan Sophocleus for 6 years, viola with Margaret Haviland and Bailey Poesnecker for 4 years, and composition with Sarah Miller for 2 years. He has composed many things, including a symphony, a handful of chamber works, and the Capriccio for Chamber orchestra which will be performed. When he's not practicing an instrument or composing, William likes to cook and read. In the future, he wants to pursue a career as a film composer or a surgeon.

NEW WORKS COMPETITION

Funded by the McKnight Foundation

Again this summer, with the generous support from the McKnight Foundation, the Minnesota Sinfonia is pleased to announce a call for new and unpublished (chamber) orchestral scores. Five new works will be premiered during the 2021-22 season, with composers receiving compensation ranging between $500 and $6,000. The deadline for Adult Composer is August 15, 2021.
